United States Savings Bonds could also be called "Opportunity Bonds." Besides insuring your security, Savings Bonds provide family opportunity—opportunity to provide a reserve for educating your children, or for purchasing a home or a farm. Savings Bonds provide individual opportunity—opportunity to accumulate the capital necessary to go into business for one's self, or for further education or travel. Buy an extra "Opportunity Bond" now. Bonds regularly through the payroll savings plan where you work. Sign up for Security.—U. S. Treasury Department.
